

11/05/2001, Egypte, Caire, cop's control in the Queen Boat, 50 gays were arrested. source: [Voacore]

the night of 28/06/1969, riot of Stonewall in Greenwich Village. Every year the gaypride commemorate this struggle.

March 18th, 1996, the occupation of Paris Saint-Ambroise church by more than 3000 sans papiers. source: [CAE]

March 15th, 1998, Sixth Collective occupy a church in the 13th district of Paris in order to demand the liberation of a fellow member who was arrested after his identity was verified in the street. source: [CAE]

"On March 28th, 1998, twelve Malians forced to board on the same plane are commanded off the plane, thanks as always to the passengers who take a stand and refuse to take their seats in the case of deportation. source: [CAE]

Riot after Channel security tightened
French police have used tear gas to disperse illegal immigrants after rioting broke out at the Sangatte refugee centre close to a cross-Channel freight depot near Calais. At least four of the rioters were seriously wounded in fighting, which began shortly after the French railway authorities announced measures to tighten security at the depot.

Demonstration against the CIP (professional insertion contract) (FRANCE) 10-03-94, Paris: 15,000 people demonstrate against the CIP. Pillage, broken windows, clashes with the police. 7-03-94, Paris: at least 32,000 demonstrators, plus a thousand violent window breakers, pillaging, clashes, 215 arrests. 72 cities with over a thousand demonstrators. "Trouble" almost everywhere. 24-03-94, Nantes: 10,000 anti-CIPs, 800 against the police, pillaging, sustained fire, 25 wounded, retreat of the national guard. 25-03-94, Nantes: clashes, fresh attack on an armory. 26-03-94: 15,000 demonstrators, 2,000 against the police, pillaging. 31-03-94: 20,000, 2 thousand of them

1992 riots of Los Angeles
6, 7, 8 et 9 octobre 1990, VAUX en Velin, France: four days riot in the suburbs

29/01/2001, La Défense, Paris : 200 young people came to La Défense, symbol of neo-liberalism, to fight with the police

Puurs, Belgique, 29 août 1998: incendie d'un restaurant McDonald par le FIA (Front de libération des Animaux, FIA Belgique, United Kingdom, USA). Mouvement radical * antispéciste * actif en principalement Grande-Bretagne et aux USA, mais également en Europe. Les attentats du FIA, utilisent largement l'incendie et les bombes et sont le plus souvent dirigés contre des installations et des immeubles.

10/10/2002, Iran, prison/riot in teheran Ghasr prison source: [prima.news]

17/7/2002, Protest in Georgian the Avchalska concentration camp Tbilisi for former law enforcement workers source: [id]

22/04/2002, London woman becomes fiftieth hunger striker to die in Turkey source: [anti-imperialist]

19/06/2002 Hungerstrike in Antwerp Prison (Belgium) to protest the conditions of life in Belgian prisons.

2/10/ 2001, Mexico, Riot in Cereso Nogales II prison, 10 inmates were killed. source: [id]

18/02/200, Brasil, riots of the prisoners of 19 prisons in Sao Paulo State, 7000 hostages.source: [Quotidien du peuple]

15/03/200, Brasil, riot of young prisoners of the detention-center Franco da Rocha source: [www.france.com]

21/05/2000, Chili, Iquique a fire broke out during a riot at the prison

nov 2000, Turkey - some 800 prisoners continue hungerstrike. The prisoners are protesting against plans to transfer them from dormitory wards to small cells source: [BBC, 28 November].

7/02/2000, Lima Peru : Rebels take guards in deadly prison riot source: [id]

June 2000, 700 prisoners of Woomera, Port Hedland, Curtin (detention center) scape away and go in the city to protest against their conditions. 25-28/06/00, riot at Woomera center. source: [www.ainfoa]

Gruppe Mücadele, Germany, it is active in solidarity with political prisoners worldwide, mainly with the prisoner camps in Turkey.

Airport Action Against Deportations-Montréal
Sunday, October 20, 2002 ... Today, over 50 Montréal residents, as part of the No One is Illegal campaign, actively flyered at Dorval Airport in opposition to the "deportation business", and to bring attention to specific deportation cases.

attack the prefecture building, clashes. 25-03-94: anti-CIP demo, 30,000 participate, a thousand window breakers (including PSG football hooligans), 112 wounded cops, 338 arrests, attacks on (withdrawal of the CIP by the government the day before) 40,000 people, 2 to 3 thousand window breakers (including hooligans), store displays, pillaging, urban furnishings, two hundred damaged cars, wounded journalists plus over 120 cops, clashes before the Santé prison without any escapes, 324 arrests. [bibliothèque des émeutes]

Active from October 1984 to December 1985. Fighting against imperialism. One of the ways to do so was guerrilla combat against NATO. With this aim, the CCC identified three kinds of targets: NATO and its installations; the arms industry; the political organs of the State and their political parties source: [http://www.terrorwatch.ch]

New People's Army (NPA) Revolutionary, anti-capitalist and anti-imperialist. Since 1974, the ELA has attacked NATO targets and more specifically, the American military presence. The ELA makes extensive use of bombs and fire, but directs its activities towards material goods rather than people.

Italy : Clandestine leftist extremist group that appeared in the Friuli region in Italy in 1995. Criticized US/NATO presence in Italy and attacked property owned by US Air Forces personnel at Aviano Air Base. Claimed responsibility for a bomb attack in September 2000 against the Central European Initiative office in Trieste and a bomb attack in August 2001 against the Venice Tribunal building. Threw gasoline bombs at the Venice and Rome headquarters of the then-ruling party, Democrats of the left, during the NATO intervention in Kosovo.

expropriation Guatemala Peasants Take Plantations April 21 2002
Hundreds of peasants across northern Guatemala have seized 14 coffee plantations and blocked highways to protest the country's unfair distribution of farmland, officials said. Another group of protesters briefly blocked the main highway connecting the Guatemalan capital with the country's south early Thursday, but authorities reported that they were able to take down barricades of borders and branches and reopen the road after several hours.

Genetic Pollution: Starlink Corn Invades Mexico Mexican corn farmers joined by students, Zapatista supporters and others, took to the streets this week challenging the U.N. International Conference on Financing for Development taking place in the northern city of Monterrey.

Zambia refuses GM 'poison' : Zambia's president has refused to overturn his ban on genetically modified (GM) food aid despite the food crisis which is threatening up to 2.4 million people. Levy Mwanawasa said he would not allow Zambians to eat "poison". Up to 13 million people face famine across southern Africa, aid agencies have warned. [...] United States aid officials deny that the food is unsafe, pointing out that Americans eat GM maize every day.

Anti-Biotech Direct Actionists Destroy GE Crops in California : In the early morning hours of May 16th genetically engineered crops at a biotech research facility near Oakland California were destroyed. [...]

The international indymedia caravan
The idea of the caravan (IndyArgentina, Peru, Brazil), USA, Germany, Italy) is to help strengthening the alternative media network in South America, building up a sustainable network of independent media and to create as space of exchange of skills, resources and information with the local activists networks in south america source: [indymedia]

Albania *10-02-97: the clashes begin with stone-throwing in the morning, 50 captured policemen are forced to strip naked, their helmets and shields are burned. The demonstrators throw up barricades all around the city. All the buildings where the forces of order take refuge are besieged. The state loses Vlorë. The riot has become an insurrection [day's toll: 3 dead, 146 wounded]. *14-03-97: The city of Durrës is transformed into a playground: "a great, savage melee of thousands of inhabitants of Durrës, pillaging the administrative buildings and the harbor warehouses. The party lasted two days with a ruffe of weapons, and everything was up for the taking." "Then the same thing happened in Tirana: The pillaging began to spread, carried out by hordes of poor people or bandits. Nobody hides, sometimes it looks like a popular fête." source: [la bibliothèque des émeutes]

El Pais, Madrid, April 19, 2001
A thousand striking workers have been camping since January 29, 2001 in the center of the Spanish capital. "Accustomed to working in the street, the Sintel laborers have displayed their capacity to mount the camp with out any outside assistance. They use the sewer drains as toilets, have fabricated rudimentary showers and have plugged into the traffic lights for electricity. The organization of the camp is modeled on the union structure, with one committee per region. Each committee is responsible for the parcel which it manages from day to day."

januar 1999, Yasnogorsk (Russia): the workers take the control of their factory. source: [un monde, une classe en lutte]

Venezuela
28 february 1989, the looting generalize in 17 cities. source: [la bibliothèque des émeutes]

January 1999, the Euskadi Ta Askatasuna (clandestine organisation for self determination of Euskadi) announce the end of the cease.

Anarchist Rebels attack Police post in Uganda: Anarchist rebels with balacavlas attacked a military police station and burnt it to the ground. Anarchist Democratic Forces (ADF) of uganda have been fighting Yoweri Museveni's military junta from the mountains of the moon in western uganda for 3 years now.

Demonstrations and riots by young people all over Iran, October 22, 2001: hundreds of thousands of young people in Tehran, Isfahan, Rasht, Sari, Tabriz, Sanandaj, and several other cities in Iran took to the streets and once again displayed their hatred and aversion for the oppressive regime and the reactionary rulers of Iran. bilan : Tens of rioters were hospitalized and 800 hundreds were arrested in Teheran

Montreal, 9/09/02, at the université solidarity demonstration for the palestinian source: [indymedia.org]

24/04/2002, Washington, 75 000 peoples demonstrate in the street for the palestinian source: [Naomne Klein, Toronto Globe and Mail]

17th of April 2002
International day of farmer's struggle

Plan Puebla Panama
March 03 2002
When Vincente Fox, in early 2001, announced his comprehensive plan for a major transportation and industrial corridor from Puebla, Mexico all the way to Panama, it immediately drew fire from the Zapatista Army of National Liberation. Subcomandante Marcos denounced the plan saying, "the Isthmus is not for sale!"

"In the night of May 26-27, three fields of PGS-Aventis oilseed rape were 'silenced' near the Belgian towns of Ten Hede, Beerhof and Turkijenhoeck, all in East Flanders. The fields belonged to Aventis Crop Science." [www.aseed.net] | A SEED, NL action for solidarity, equality, environment and diversity

"In the night of 26 May 2001, crop experiments in 10 research facilities of Nunhems Seeds were destroyed in S. Agata Bolognese, Italy"

"In the night of Sunday to Monday June 25, a group of activists calling themselves "Razende Hazen" (Raging Hares) have sabotaged two field tests of Roundup Ready sugar beets in Brabant, the south of The Netherlands. The two fields were the only Monsanto field trials in the Netherlands this year."

India: KRRS Activists Destroy Bt Cotton in Davanagere
Activists of the Karnataka Rajya Raiitha Sangha (KRRS) destroyed Bt cotton cultivated in an area of two acres at Rudranakatte near here on Sunday. The activists led by KRRS President Prof. M. D. Nanjundaswamy convinced the farmers before destroying the crops. Security was tightened in the village to prevent any untoward incident. However, the police could not take any steps against the activists as they destroyed the crops after convincing the farmers. [...]

Green Network of Alternative Groups (GNAG), Croatia: the main goals of the GNAG are helping the creation and connection of ecological autonomous places within the cities and villages in Croatia or within the Balkan/Southeast Europe region in the future. They have a lot of experience in organising various protests against car-culture, capitalist globalisation, GMO, NATO, local and global wars, WB, IMF and WTO

2001, rebellion against the FMI in Papouasie-Nouvelle Guinée
Des centaines d'étudiants manifestent pacifiquement depuis cinq jours devant le palais du gouvernement pour protester contre le programme de réforme du premier ministre Sir Mekere Morauta qui prévoit, entre autre, la privatisation de biens publics. source: [samizdat]

Chicago Direct Action Network, Germany network interested in labour struggle and mobilisations against WEF, IMF and the World Bank

Göteborg (Sweden), June 14-16, 2001, police communications systems jammed during the riot

Carbontradedwatch, TNI, Nederland
carbontradedwatch monitors and researches the impacts and effects of the upcoming trade in pollution wich its advocates state will resolve climate change in a cost-effective way.

"The heart of the Internet sustained its largest and most sophisticated attack ever, starting late Monday... Around 5:00 p.m. EDT on Monday, a "distributed denial of service" (DDoS) attack struck the 13 "root servers" that provide the primary roadmap for almost all Internet communications. [cf. Washington Post, Tuesday, October 22, 2002; 5-40 PM]

Argentina Arde (a contre information project that meets different medium and indymedia groups that includes also indymedia argentina)

a-info international anarchist collective israeli: The a-info project is coordinated by an international collective of revolutionary anti-authoritarian, anti-capitalist activists, involved with class struggle and who regard it as a total social struggle.

IRAQ The insurrectional process in Iraq began taking concrete form on February 26-28, 1991, with thousands of armed deserters wandering the streets of Bassorah and neighboring villages while the central organs of the state totally lost control over the situation. On March 4 in the same city, a qualitative leap was taken in the process when columns of tanks in retreat from Kuwait fired on the symbols of the regime. The insurrection then began to spread throughout the city. The same day in Bagdad, clashes occurred in several working-class neighborhoods. On March 4, 5 and 6, the insurrection became widespread in the following cities: Nasirya, Aamara, Najaf, Karbala, Hila, Koot... The rising in Rania, on March 5, marks the point when the insurrection began spreading to other regions in Iraq. On March 7, armed proletarians destroyed one of the most important bastions of the regime in Soulaymania. On March 8, it was the city of Kadir's turn, on March 9 the insurrection grew in Koya, on the 10th in Shalana. On March 11, the proletariat rose in Abiri; the next day the entire region was in the hands of the proletarians. On March 13, the last Baath resistance fell in Akra, in Duwak on the 14th, and in Zakho on the 15th. On March 16 and 17, entire columns of fighters left all the cities where the proletariat had triumphed, with the goal of liberating the city of Kirkuk; but the Baath aviation made the job much harder. The insurrection paid a tribute of a thousand deaths. [Groupe Communiste Internationalisé]

C'est au cri de "Vous ne pouvez pas nous tuer, nous sommes déjà morts!" que pendant plusieurs semaines les jeunes émeutiers se sont battus contre les forces de police et la gendarmerie. Réduits l'état de morts-vivants par la société algérienne, ils savaient qu'il leur fallait la détruire pour commencer de vivre. [Nous répondrons au néant par l'émiettissement de ses géniteurs", déclarait en juillet l'un d'eux.] A partir du 10 juin, principale ment en Kabylie, mais aussi à partir du 10 juin à Khenchela (dans les Aurès), du 11 à Skikda (au nord de Constantine) et du 16 dans tout l'est du pays (à Oum El Bouaghi, Batna, Tébessa, Biskra, El Tarf, etc.), ils ont dressé : des barricades, coupé des routes, pris d'assaut des gendarmeries et des commissariats ; ils ont attaqué un siège de préfecture, (à Tébessa, alors que deux ministres se trouvaient à l'intérieur), incendié des sociétés, nombre de tribunaux (aux Ouacils le palais de justice, tout juste terminée, a été réduit en cendres), des recettes des impôts, des postes et des locaux de sociétés publiques, des sièges de partis politiques (au moins trente-deux), des banques, des bureaux de la Sécurité sociale, des parcs communaux, etc. Mais on voit tout de même que les insurgés avaient enregistré de nettes victoires. Le terrain de toutes les expressions matérielles de l'état [source: Apologie pour l'insurrection algérienne - Jaime Sempurn]

1997 movement of unemployed in France it begin the 4 december 1997: -june 1997: occupation of Assedic in Paris under the impulsion of ACI -3 december: unemployed occupy a luxurious hotel in Montréal, (Canada 600 arrestations) -4 december: 7 Assedic agencies are occupy in the department of the Bouches-du-Rhône, under the drive of the CGT, the ex-biggest worker syndicat who's the only one who recognize the unemployed as it is in its organisation. The occupants want a end/year prime of 3 000 francs. - the 15 december the movement grow to Arras, Lorient, Choisy-le-Roi, Toulouse, Lille, Bordeaux - the 16 december the unemployment/associations (ACI, Apeis, Cadac, CDSL, DAL, Droits devant!, MNCF, SUD, SNUJ, CFTD en lutte, CGT Finances, FSU) make a call for a "week of social urgency". Since the 17, they forced the transport to be free in Clermont-Ferrand, they stopped the bailiff in Lannion, they occupy a new Assedic and others administrations -the 23 december unemployed of Rouen try to go inside an Assedic agency crying ("we don't want to be beggars !" [...]) -the 24 Noël, town hall of 11e and 12e borough of Marseille are violently evacuated by the police -the 31 number of unemployed invited themselves at the famous restaurant Fouquet's on the Champs-Élysées in Paris, and after at the hôtel Monceau.

-the 14 januar is the occupation of the ENS, [Ecole normale supérieure de la rue d'Ulm] by 130 people who are the head of the principal associations, they constituted themselves in a general assembly (" This assembly took end the 17 january. It could be considered as the preparation of the one of Justice. -19 january 1998 at Jussieu: the first general assembly of unemployed until march. [source: la bibliothèque des émeutes]

shoras (irak-1991)
40,000 march against the WSSD [...] in South Africa against capitalism. August 31st 2002 will go down in history as the beginning of a new movement in South Africa and the world – a movement of the power of collective, democratic action in the creation of an other world outside of capitalism.

December 11 2002 Argetino: Police attempting to oust mothers from Plaza de Mayo. Less than 20 hours from the start of the historical March of Resistance that year after year is organised by the Mothers of Plaza de Mayo, the police infantry -under orders of the City government- is trying to evict them from all the other comrades of the social organizations and struggle groups that, upon hearing about the imminent repression, have spontaneously come to the Plaza de Mayo to reject them.

Argentina Arde (a contre information project that meets different medium and indymedia groups that includes also indymedia argentina)

a-info international anarchist collective israeli: The a-info project is coordinated by an international collective of revolutionary anti-authoritarian, anti-capitalist activists, involved with class struggle and who regard it as a total social struggle.

Organisation Independenta de los Pobres Unidos de la Huasteca, OIPIUH (Mexico)
Organisation created in 1978. Said to be composed of 2,000 fighters, for the most part of Indian origin. Engages in the occupation of land, kidnapping of prominent individuals for ransom (with redistribution of the money received to the locals). Said to be led by Alejandro Hernandez Dolores (1998).

1997 movement of unemployed in France it begin the 4 december 1997: -june 1997: occupation of Assedic in Paris under the impulsion of ACI -3 december: unemployed occupy a luxurious hotel in Montréal, (Canada 600 arrestations) -4 december: 7 Assedic agencies are occupy in the department of the Bouches-du-Rhône, under the drive of the CGT, the ex-biggest worker syndicat who's the only one who recognize the unemployed as it is in its organisation. The occupants want a end/year prime of 3 000 francs. - the 15 december the movement grow to Arras, Lorient, Choisy-le-Roi, Toulouse, Lille, Bordeaux - the 16 december the unemployment/associations (ACI, Apeis, Cadac, CDSL, DAL, Droits devant!, MNCF, SUD, SNUJ, CFTD en lutte, CGT Finances, FSU) make a call for a "week of social urgency". Since the 17, they forced the transport to be free in Clermont-Ferrand, they stopped the bailiff in Lannion, they occupy a new Assedic and others administrations -the 23 december unemployed of Rouen try to go inside an Assedic agency crying ("we don't want to be beggars !" [...]) -the 24 Noël, town hall of 11e and 12e borough of Marseille are violently evacuated by the police -the 31 number of unemployed invited themselves at the famous restaurant Fouquet's on the Champs-Élysées in Paris, and after at the hôtel Monceau.

the 14 januar is the occupation of the ENS, [Ecole normale supérieure de la rue d'Ulm] by 130 people who are the head of the principal associations, they constituted themselves in a general assembly (" This assembly took end the 17 january. It could be considered as the preparation of the one of Justice. -19 january 1998 at Jussieu: the first general assembly of unemployed until march. [source: la bibliothèque des émeutes]

shoras (iran-1978)
40,000 march against the WSSD [...] in South Africa against capitalism. August 31st 2002 will go down in history as the beginning of a new movement in South Africa and the world – a movement of the power of collective, democratic action in the creation of an other world outside of capitalism.

December 11 2002 Argetino: Police attempting to oust mothers from Plaza de Mayo. Less than 20 hours from the start of the historical March of Resistance that year after year is organised by the Mothers of Plaza de Mayo, the police infantry -under orders of the City government- is trying to evict them from all the other comrades of the social organizations and struggle groups that, upon hearing about the imminent repression, have spontaneously come to the Plaza de Mayo to reject them.

Argentina Arde (a contre information project that meets different medium and indymedia groups that includes also indymedia argentina)

a-info international anarchist collective israeli: The a-info project is coordinated by an international collective of revolutionary anti-authoritarian, anti-capitalist activists, involved with class struggle and who regard it as a total social struggle.

IRAQ The insurrectional process in Iraq began taking concrete form on February 26-28, 1991, with thousands of armed deserters wandering the streets of Bassorah and neighboring villages while the central organs of the state totally lost control over the situation. On March 4 in the same city, a qualitative leap was taken in the process when columns of tanks in retreat from Kuwait fired on the symbols of the regime. The insurrection then began to spread throughout the city. The same day in Bagdad, clashes occurred in several working-class neighborhoods. On March 4, 5 and 6, the insurrection became widespread in the following cities: Nasirya, Aamara, Najaf, Karbala, Hila, Koot... The rising in Rania, on March 5, marks the point when the insurrection began spreading to other regions in Iraq. On March 7, armed proletarians destroyed one of the most important bastions of the regime in Soulaymania. On March 8, it was the city of Kadir's turn, on March 9 the insurrection grew in Koya, on the 10th in Shalana. On March 11, the proletariat rose in Abiri; the next day the entire region was in the hands of the proletarians. On March 13, the last Baath resistance fell in Akra, in Duwak on the 14th, and in Zakho on the 15th. On March 16 and 17, entire columns of fighters left all the cities where the proletariat had triumphed, with the goal of liberating the city of Kirkuk; but the Baath aviation made the job much harder. The insurrection paid a tribute of a thousand deaths. [Groupe Communiste Internationalisé]

C'est au cri de "Vous ne pouvez pas nous tuer, nous sommes déjà morts!" que pendant plusieurs semaines les jeunes émeutiers se sont battus contre les forces de police et la gendarmerie. Réduits l'état de morts-vivants par la société algérienne, ils savaient qu'il leur fallait la détruire pour commencer de vivre. [Nous répondrons au néant par l'émiettissement de ses géniteurs", déclarait en juillet l'un d'eux.] A partir du 10 juin, principale ment en Kabylie, mais aussi à partir du 10 juin à Khenchela (dans les Aurès), du 11 à Skikda (au nord de Constantine) et du 16 dans tout l'est du pays (à Oum El Bouaghi, Batna, Tébessa, Biskra, El Tarf, etc.), ils ont dressé : des barricades, coupé des routes, pris d'assaut des gendarmeries et des commissariats ; ils ont attaqué un siège de préfecture, (à Tébessa, alors que deux ministres se trouvaient à l'intérieur), incendié des sociétés, nombre de tribunaux (aux Ouacils le palais de justice, tout juste terminée, a été réduit en cendres), des recettes des impôts, des postes et des locaux de sociétés publiques, des sièges de partis politiques (au moins trente-deux), des banques, des bureaux de la Sécurité sociale, des parcs communaux, etc. Mais on voit tout de même que les insurgés avaient enregistré de nettes victoires. Le terrain de toutes les expressions matérielles de l'état [source: Apologie pour l'insurrection algérienne - Jaime Sempurn]

1997 movement of unemployed in France it begin the 4 december 1997: -june 1997: occupation of Assedic in Paris under the impulsion of ACI -3 december: unemployed occupy a luxurious hotel in Montréal, (Canada 600 arrestations) -4 december: 7 Assedic agencies are occupy in the department of the Bouches-du-Rhône, under the drive of the CGT, the ex-biggest worker syndicat who's the only one who recognize the unemployed as it is in its organisation. The occupants want a end/year prime of 3 000 francs. - the 15 december the movement grow to Arras, Lorient, Choisy-le-Roi, Toulouse, Lille, Bordeaux - the 16 december the unemployment/associations (ACI, Apeis, Cadac, CDSL, DAL, Droits devant!, MNCF, SUD, SNUJ, CFTD en lutte, CGT Finances, FSU) make a call for a "week of social urgency". Since the 17, they forced the transport to be free in Clermont-Ferrand, they stopped the bailiff in Lannion, they occupy a new Assedic and others administrations -the 23 december unemployed of Rouen try to go inside an Assedic agency crying ("we don't want to be beggars !" [...]) -the 24 Noël, town hall of 11e and 12e borough of Marseille are violently evacuated by the police -the 31 number of unemployed invited themselves at the famous restaurant Fouquet's on the Champs-Élysées in Paris, and after at the hôtel Monceau.

-the 14 januar is the occupation of the ENS, [Ecole normale supérieure de la rue d'Ulm] by 130 people who are the head of the principal associations, they constituted themselves in a general assembly (" This assembly took end the 17 january. It could be considered as the preparation of the one of Justice. -19 january 1998 at Jussieu: the first general assembly of unemployed until march. [source: la bibliothèque des émeutes]

shoras (irak-1991)
40,000 march against the WSSD [...] in South Africa against capitalism. August 31st 2002 will go down in history as the beginning of a new movement in South Africa and the world – a movement of the power of collective, democratic action in the creation of an other world outside of capitalism.

December 11 2002 Argetino: Police attempting to oust mothers from Plaza de Mayo. Less than 20 hours from the start of the historical March of Resistance that year after year is organised by the Mothers of Plaza de Mayo, the police infantry -under orders of the City government- is trying to evict them from all the other comrades of the social organizations and struggle groups that, upon hearing about the imminent repression, have spontaneously come to the Plaza de Mayo to reject them.

Argentina Arde (a contre information project that meets different medium and indymedia groups that includes also indymedia argentina)

a-info international anarchist collective israeli: The a-info project is coordinated by an international collective of revolutionary anti-authoritarian, anti-capitalist activists, involved with class struggle and who regard it as a total social struggle.

IRAQ The insurrectional process in Iraq began taking concrete form on February 26-28, 1991, with thousands of armed deserters wandering the streets of Bassorah and neighboring villages while the central organs of the state totally lost control over the situation. On March 4 in the same city, a qualitative leap was taken in the process when columns of tanks in retreat from Kuwait fired on the symbols of the regime. The insurrection then began to spread throughout the city. The same day in Bagdad, clashes occurred in several working-class neighborhoods. On March 4, 5 and 6, the insurrection became widespread in the following cities: Nasirya, Aamara, Najaf, Karbala, Hila, Koot... The rising in Rania, on March 5, marks the point when the insurrection began spreading to other regions in Iraq. On March 7, armed proletarians destroyed one of the most important bastions of the regime in Soulaymania. On March 8, it was the city of Kadir's turn, on March 9 the insurrection grew in Koya, on the 10th in Shalana. On March 11, the proletariat rose in Abiri; the next day the entire region was in the hands of the proletarians. On March 13, the last Baath resistance fell in Akra, in Duwak on the 14th, and in Zakho on the 15th. On March 16 and 17, entire columns of fighters left all the cities where the proletariat had triumphed, with the goal of liberating the city of Kirkuk; but the Baath aviation made the job much harder. The insurrection paid a tribute of a thousand deaths. [Groupe Communiste Internationalisé]

C'est au cri de "Vous ne pouvez pas nous tuer, nous sommes déjà morts!" que pendant plusieurs semaines les jeunes émeutiers se sont battus contre les forces de police et la gendarmerie. Réduits l'état de morts-vivants par la société algérienne, ils savaient qu'il leur fallait la détruire pour commencer de vivre. [Nous répondrons au néant par l'émiettissement de ses géniteurs", déclarait en juillet l'un d'eux.] A partir du 10 juin, principale ment en Kabylie, mais aussi à partir du 10 juin à Khenchela (dans les Aurès), du 11 à Skikda (au nord de Constantine) et du 16 dans tout l'est du pays (à Oum El Bouaghi, Batna, Tébessa, Biskra, El Tarf, etc.), ils ont dressé : des barricades, coupé des routes, pris d'assaut des gendarmeries et des commissariats ; ils ont attaqué un siège de préfecture, (à Tébessa, alors que deux ministres se trouvaient à l'intérieur), incendié des sociétés, nombre de tribunaux (aux Ouacils le palais de justice, tout juste terminée, a été réduit en cendres), des recettes des impôts, des postes et des locaux de sociétés publiques, des sièges de partis politiques (au moins trente-deux), des banques, des bureaux de la Sécurité sociale, des parcs communaux, etc. Mais on voit tout de même que les insurgés avaient enregistré de nettes victoires. Le terrain de toutes les expressions matérielles de l'état [source: Apologie pour l'insurrection algérienne - Jaime Sempurn]

1997 movement of unemployed in France it begin the 4 december 1997: -june 1997: occupation of Assedic in Paris under the impulsion of ACI -3 december: unemployed occupy a luxurious hotel in Montréal, (Canada 600 arrestations) -4 december: 7 Assedic agencies are occupy in the department of the Bouches-du-Rhône, under the drive of the CGT, the ex-biggest worker syndicat who's the only one who recognize the unemployed as it is in its organisation. The occupants want a end/year prime of 3 000 francs. - the 15 december the movement grow to Arras, Lorient, Choisy-le-Roi, Toulouse, Lille, Bordeaux - the 16 december the unemployment/associations (ACI, Apeis, Cadac, CDSL, DAL, Droits devant!, MNCF, SUD, SNUJ, CFTD en lutte, CGT Finances, FSU) make a call for a "week of social urgency". Since the 17, they forced the transport to be free in Clermont-Ferrand, they stopped the bailiff in Lannion, they occupy a new Assedic and others administrations -the 23 december unemployed of Rouen try to go inside an Assedic agency crying ("we don't want to be beggars !" [...]) -the 24 Noël, town hall of 11e and 12e borough of Marseille are violently evacuated by the police -the 31 number of unemployed invited themselves at the famous restaurant Fouquet's on the Champs-Élysées in Paris, and after at the hôtel Monceau.

-the 14 januar is the occupation of the ENS, [Ecole normale supérieure de la rue d'Ulm] by 130 people who are the head of the principal associations, they constituted themselves in a general assembly (" This assembly took end the 17 january. It could be considered as the preparation of the one of Justice. -19 january 1998 at Jussieu: the first general assembly of unemployed until march. [source: la bibliothèque des émeutes]

shoras (irak-1991)
40,000 march against the WSSD [...] in South Africa against capitalism. August 31st 2002 will go down in history as the beginning of a new movement in South Africa and the world – a movement of the power of collective, democratic action in the creation of an other world outside of capitalism.

December 11 2002 Argetino: Police attempting to oust mothers from Plaza de Mayo. Less than 20 hours from the start of the historical March of Resistance that year after year is organised by the Mothers of Plaza de Mayo, the police infantry -under orders of the City government- is trying to evict them from all the other comrades of the social organizations and struggle groups that, upon hearing about the imminent repression, have spontaneously come to the Plaza de Mayo to reject them.

Argentina Arde (a contre information project that meets different medium and indymedia groups that includes also indymedia argentina)

a-info international anarchist collective israeli: The a-info project is coordinated by an international collective of revolutionary anti-authoritarian, anti-capitalist activists, involved with class struggle and who regard it as a total social struggle.

IRAQ The insurrectional process in Iraq began taking concrete form on February 26-28, 1991, with thousands of armed deserters wandering the streets of Bassorah and neighboring villages while the central organs of the state totally lost control over the situation. On March 4 in the same city, a qualitative leap was taken in the process when columns of tanks in retreat from Kuwait fired on the symbols of the regime. The insurrection then began to spread throughout the city. The same day in Bagdad, clashes occurred in several working-class neighborhoods. On March 4, 5 and 6, the insurrection became widespread in the following cities: Nasirya, Aamara, Najaf, Karbala, Hila, Koot... The rising in Rania, on March 5, marks the point when the insurrection began spreading to other regions in Iraq. On March 7, armed proletarians destroyed one of the most important bastions of the regime in Soulaymania. On March 8, it was the city of Kadir's turn, on March 9 the